ALL IS READY AT JUAREZ

TROUBLE IN MEXICO WILL NOT AFFECT MEETING OPENING TODAY.

Fine Card Provided and Conditions for Opening Are Auspicious—Field of Good Class Named for La Independencia Handicap, Stake Feature.

El Paso, Tex., November 23.—Everything is in readiness for an auspicious opening of the Jockey Club Juarez winter meeting of 100 days beginning tomorrow. The insurrection which has been in progress in Mexico, a considerable distance south of the international boundary line, is not expected to at all affect the meeting at Juarez, which is a sort of international affair, with prominent Mexicans and Americans jointly interested.

The opening of the meeting at Juarez tomorrow will find the beautiful plant in its gayest colors, ready to receive its guests. For the past month a large force of workmen, under the personal supervision of General Manager Matt Winn, have been at work daily making improvements that will be noticed immediately by the patrons of the club who have not visited the plant since last year.

When the gates are thrown open tomorrow for the second annual meeting of the Jockey Club Juarez patrons of the sport in this part of the country will have the pleasure of seeing high-class racing. Assistant Secretary Jasper left no stone unturned in arranging an attractive program for the opening day. All classes of horses at the track are represented in the entries and so evenly are the fields balanced that most interesting contests may be expected.

The La Independencia Handicap, value $2,000, at one and one-eighth miles, and the first stake event of the meeting, has attracted a small but select field, all of which are announced as starters. Jack Atkin, which occupies the post of honor in the assignment of weights, arrived safely and is in fine fettle, and despite the heavy impost will have many supporters, although Helmet and Taboo will not lack followers. Glorio has been on the ground for some time and his work-outs indicate a return to good form. Harrigan has also been going exceptionally well and while Doughty seems outclassed his owners are confident he will make a good showing.

Today's work-outs were as follows:

Bouton—Three-quarters in 1:17.
Clint Tucker—Three-quarters in 1:16.
Creston—Three-quarters in 1:19.
Dick Moss—Three-quarters in 1:17.
Dorante—Half mile in 52.
Fred Mulholland—Half mile in 1:53.
Gibson—Half mile in 50.
Glen Helen—Half mile in 51.
Intrinsic—Half mile in 51.
Jacqueline—Three-quarters in 1:20.
Mark Kennedy—Half mile in 50.
Pedro—Three-eighths in 37.
Periwinkle—Three-quarters in 1:17.
Short Order—Three-eighths in 38.
Sigurd—Three-quarters in 1:19.

The management of the Juarez track and the Mexican officials in Juarez say that the trouble in Mexico will not interfere at all with the racing here. The attempted revolution is not looked upon seriously here.

When the officials of the Jockey Club Juarez shall have completed all the plans they have in mind regarding Terrazas Park, the plant will represent an investment of just half a million dollars in gold. As the plant stands today, it represents $400,000. The additional $100,000 is to be spent next summer in building a clubhouse, a large tank in the center field and a concrete fence that will surround the entire plant.

Beautiful Terrazas Park, the home of the Jockey Club Juarez, is located in Juarez, at a point about twenty minutes' ride from El Paso's business center. The plant is reached over a double-track railway and is connected with Juarez by a beautiful boulevard leading to the main entrance to the ground. In front of the enclosure is a beautiful spot that has been converted into a park. This spot is surrounded by a driveway for the patrons who prefer driving to the races or going in automobiles. The park is covered with a beautiful carpet of green winter wheat, which gives a beautiful appearance.

The grandstand, which is one of the largest and best appointed in the country, is constructed of concrete as are all the buildings on the course. It is so designed that no matter in what part of it the spectator is sitting, he or she can witness every part of a race. Along the front of the stand is a row of boxes that have been floored and in which comfortable chairs have been placed.

Next to the grandstand is the betting ring, which is so situated that patrons of the club can wager on their favorite and then step just a few feet to the lawn and witness the running of the races. The ring is well lighted, and on the west is a row of the entire course of the track, which is a row of large windows, which have been frosted this fall to keep out the glare of the sun, while the same amount of light is obtained as formerly.

Next to the betting ring and between it and the paddock are the offices of the club and the paddock are the headquarters. In the lower half of this building is the private office of Mr. Winn, the office of Assistant Manager Harry Bruevogel and the bookkeeper, while across the way are the offices of the secretary, the ring manager and the entry clerk. Above the offices is the paddock, which is one of the best appointed in the country. Here are a shower bath and a tub bath, stationary washstands and individual lockers for each of the youngsters. A large gallery, giving a view of the complete course, enables the boys not riding in a race to witness the struggle from beginning to end without coming into contact with the public.

At the end of the offices is the paddock, which contains eighteen roomy stalls, besides a large exercise ring for the horses. A high fence around the exercise ring reduces the possibility of an accident, while it also enables the spectators to view at close range the starters. At the end of the paddock is the hospital, which has just been completed. Out in the open just beyond the paddock is the field stand for those that cannot afford to pay the price of admission to the grandstand.

DERBY OPENED IN THE NORTHWEST.

The expansion of the turf is keeping pace with the general growth of the Canadian northwest and the announcement of two futurities for 1913 is evidence that Alberta means to be in the front rank. Manager E. L. Richardson has announced the conditions of two futurities of $2,000, for which breeders can qualify by a first payment of only $5. One is for horses born in the United States, and the other is for horses born in the United States, Canada, Idaho, Montana, Wisconsin and Iowa. The running event is open to horses foaled in the same wide expanse of country, except that Canadian-breds must

BORROW AND HIS DAM FORGET

American pride is well fed by the fact that the leading money winner of the two-year-olds raced in England this year was bred in this country. Borrow may not be the best two-year-old in England, probably is not, but at any rate he is one of the four or five best and distinctly a credit to his splendid sire, Hamburg. Borrow was taken to England as a yearling and made his debut in racing at the Newmarket First Spring meeting, April 28, in the Newmarket Two-Year-Old Plate and finished fifth to Feramos, Lindoia, Canvashack and Sherboro. His next start was in the Woodcote Stakes at Epsom, May 31. He was the favorite at 4 to 1, but ran unplaced, the race falling to Seaforth, with Persphone second and Garraheen third. His next essay was at Gatwick, June 11, when he won the Crabtree Plate, at five furlongs, in a exciting beating eleven competitors, of which St. Amaranthe was second and Lane-a-Mort third. Next he won the valuable Windsor Castle Stakes at Ascot, June 11, defeating the fast filly, Mary Carmichael, by a head, with the Ayrshire-Chely's colt third and ten others unplaced. In both of these races he was the favorite. Then, in the Exeter Stakes at Newmarket, June 30, he ran unplaced to Sunstar, Canvashack and St. Glrons, getting off poorly. For this he made amends at Sandown Park, July 16, by winning the Great Kingston Plate from Braxted, Queen Tili and eight others. He was at 10 to 1 and, carrying 126 pounds, won by a head from Braxted, carrying 119.

Borrow's next race was at Goodwood, July 29. Here he ran second to Beaupaire in the Molecomb Stakes, at three-quarters of a mile, and the critics at once said that he could not stay over a greater distance than five furlongs. He carried 125 pounds to 124 on Beaupaire and was beaten a length and a half, with Sporty third and four more unplaced. Then he won four races in succession and finally brought confusion to those who said he was a non-stayer. At Derby, September 1, he won the Harrington Plate, at five furlongs, from Gallego, the Desmond-Cocking Bell colt, and three others, giving them from nine to fourteen pounds. At Newmarket, September 28, he ran a dead heat with Sunstar for the Hopeful Stakes, because he stumbled when fifty yards from the finish. Porphyrio was third and three others ran unplaced. October 11 he defeated Invicta, Langton and Night Rider for the Clearwell Stakes at Newmarket and three days later, on the same great track, effected the crowning achievement of his career, when he defeated Pietri, Seaforth, King William and Sandal, at three-quarters of a mile, in the Middle Park Plate, England's most famous, but not its most valuable, race for two-year-olds. Coming from behind, he outstayed the cracks, Pietri and Seaforth, in the most resolute fashion imaginable and proved conclusively that he could stay as well as run exceedingly fast. His last race of the year was in the Criterion Stakes at the Newmarket Houghton meeting and in this he was beaten three-quarters of a length by Mr. Belmont's fine filly, Sandwich, carrying 125 pounds to her 120. Prince San was the favorite and finished third. Borrow's performances and pedigree are as follows:

Borrow's dam, Forget, is a remarkable broodmare and in her days of activity on the track was a capital racer, both on the flat and over jumps. On the flat she started in fifty-six races, of which she won fifteen, was second in seven, third in five and unplaced in twenty-nine. At jumping, principally in hurdle races, she started thirty-seven times, won eighteen races, was second in forty-one, third in six and unplaced in nine. When a two-year-old she attracted much attention by running a mile in 1:40 1/4, at St. Louis, a great thing, indeed, for a two-year-old in 1895. As a hurdle racer she was unexcelled, a great weight carrier, sure jumper and very game and speedy. As a broodmare she is the star matron of Mr. Whitney's Brookdale Stud, all of her produce having been good racers and winners. To star to her value all of her produce have been colts and her record as a broodmare is as follows:

1901—B. c. Hylas, by Medallion.
1902—B. c. Dreamer, by Hamburg.
1903—Barren.
1904—B. c. Dinna Ken, by Yankee.
1905—B. c. Delirium, by Sandringham.
1906—Barren.
1907—B. c. Oversight, by Ballyhoo Bey.
1908—B. c. Borrow, by Hamburg.

Of these Hylas was one of our greatest steeplechasers, Dreamer an excellent race horse ever since 1904 and still a speedy old horse, Dinna Ken a winner of great stakes in this country, Delirium a winner in this country and in England, Oversight a winner in England last year and this year, Borrow's brilliant career has been narrated. Unluckily all of her sons except Oversight were gelded.

STAKE FEATURES FOR THIS AFTERNOON

Winter racing in America will be in full swing this afternoon when the Jacksonville, Juarez and Pensacola meetings are scheduled to begin. The Oakland meeting has been in progress since November 12. At Juarez, Jacksonville and Oakland stake events of an important character are down for decision today. The Juarez track will be the scene of the first running of the $2,000 La Independencia Handicap. Jacksonville patrons of racing will enjoy the second running of the $1,500 Thanksgiving Handicap, in the initial running of which Hill Top was victorious a year ago. At Oakland the Thanksgiving Handicap will be run for the tenth time. Its value this year is $1,500, as against $500 last season, when racing was making a struggle for existence in California. Happily, conditions have improved greatly in California and the sport is rapidly assuming its old-time importance in that section of America. The Thanksgiving Handicap has been one of the important annual fixtures at Oakland. Claude is probably the most brilliant of its winners and is the only horse that succeeded in winning the event twice. Its record follows:

be foaled west of the great lakes. The conditions of the race for thoroughbreds are as follows: Chinook Derby, $1,500—For three-year-olds, one mile. Maidens allowed five pounds. Winners of $500 or over five pounds extra.

To be raced in 1913 over the course of the Alberta Provincial Exhibition, or any track named by them and governed by the prevailing rules of the track over which the races are contested.

Each nominator may name and race as many horses as he desires. Entries close December 31, 1910; $5 payable at time of entry, when a description of the foal must be given, giving the sex, color and marking, sire and dam; $10 additional August 31, 1911; August 31, 1912, a payment of $10, when the name of the foal must be given. The day previous to the race, in 1913, a starting fee of $50 must be paid. Stake to be divided: 60 per cent., 25 per cent. and 15 per cent.

Death of nominator does not render the entry void, and the sale of the nomination transfers the entry to the purchaser.

CHANGING CONDITIONS IN BREEDING.

German thoroughbred breeders are asking whether England has been able to maintain her supremacy on the race course since owners and breeders in the country designated as the home of racing give obstinately at all the international events which bring their produce in competition with that of other countries. According to the Deutscher Sport, the American foal introduced in Germany at the liquidation of the stud of Mr. Haggin, and "knocked out" at public auction without reserve, with their dams, have been more than successful. Six of them have won during the past season $8,550, or more than double the sum of $3,500 for which they were sold as foals with their dams. Another danger for the English market lies in the progress made in breeding in the Argentine Republic, where the climate and general surroundings have proved so favorable for the herds of oxen and the flocks of sheep, the magnitude of which reads like some fairy tale. Diamond Jubilee, Jardy, Val d'Or, Le Samaritan, Cyllene and Winkfield's Pride, with other good sires, have been bought for South America, and have been joined by the yearlings and the foals from the stud of Count de Gauny.

With a population of some seven millions, it is impossible to give racing that extension which would correspond with the increase in the number of thoroughbreds annually foaled in the Republic, so that in time the equine exports from Rio de la Plata will increase in importance and compete with the home market.—Toronto Globe.

ENTHUSIASM IN FLORIDA

JACKSONVILLE OVERFLOWING WITH PATRONS OF RACING FROM ALL QUARTERS.

Meeting Scheduled to Open at Moncrief Park Today Also Looked Forward to with Keen Interest by Jacksonville Residents.

Jacksonville, Fla., November 23.—The winter meeting of the Florida Live Stock and Agricultural State Fair Association will begin tomorrow under conditions that augur well for its success. There are close to 800 horses at Moncrief Park and enthusiasm among the local followers of the thoroughbred is at a high pitch. There are more visitors here this winter than there were last season and all are anxious for the meeting to begin. Several changes have been made in the staff of officials here this season. A. B. Dade succeeds H. D. Brown as starter and Joseph McLennan will be clerk of the scales. The board of stewards will be made up of Thomas C. McDowell, who arrived from Lexington this morning; W. P. Burch and W. W. Lyles. The first-named two are well-known horsemen, one being from the middle west and the other from the east. The plant at Moncrief Park, although new last winter, has been overhauled and brushed up since the close of the previous meeting and everything about the place is neat and clean and presents an inviting appearance. After serious consideration the management decided to make the admission fee this winter $2. It is understood that this move was made to discourage the attendance of local clerks and people who could not afford to patronize the sport. It is the general impression here that racing in Florida will not end with the conclusion of the 1911 season, and the club will make every effort this winter to keep the meeting free from any feature that might prove objectionable to the most exacting. It is to be hoped that this policy will be adhered to, as racing is certainly a popular pastime with the people who make Florida their winter rendezvous. There will be a field enclosure this year, to which an admission fee of $1 will be charged. The approach to this enclosure has been improved and the surroundings made more inviting. W. F. Schulte was among the arrivals from Kentucky today. H. Klein, of Lexington, is also here and will be connected with George A. Chinn's establishment. The Chinn stable is made up of a band of twenty-one racers. Col. Jack Chinn, father of the young man who owns these racers, will be here next week.

Frank Brown arrived from New York and will remain until after the holidays. Among the riders on the ground are Guy Burns, James Butwell, Phil Musgrave, Joe McCabe, McCabe, Phil Goldstein, Stanley Davis, Gross, Lang, Troxler, Herbert, J. Deavenport, Overt, C. Ross, Fain, M. Bell, Gordon, Sweeney, Goose, A. Walsh, McTaggart, Killingsworth, Adams, J. Wilson, Peak, Dreyer and Allen.

A. N. Elrod, who will have charge of the ring, reports that the following bookmakers are on hand: Sam Stephens, C. B. Walters, Gene Austin, George Vortman, F. Wolfgang, Al Hanf, E. J. Callahan, Lee Wagner, Harry Keisel, William Beverly, E. J. Ryan, Clarence Davidson, Sam Louis and John Moore.

METROPOLITAN TAKES THE HANDICAP.

Beats Balronia in Sharp Drive at Oakland—Selling Race Activities Continue.

Oakland, Cal., November 23.—Metropolitan, a heavily backed favorite, won the El Rito Handicap by a neck from Balronia at Oakland today. This race was the feature of the card and presented an open aspect. Thistle Belle made most of the pace, but Metropolitan caught her before the stretch was reached. He then stood off the challenge of Balronia gamely.

Through beating the barrier, Abella, a 15 to 1 chance, took the two-year-old race from Dacia, the favorite. Madeline Musgrave came back after winning yesterday and landed the third race at odds of 15 to 1. William Walker bid her up to $800 and B. John of the Ontario Oregon Stable went to $900, at which figure he secured her. Frank Doss then claimed Raleigh for $1,275.

Special Delivery proved a disappointment in the fifth. Sake won this race with Sir Angus. Chantilly starting for the first time, was an easy winner in the last race.

T. H. Stevens' string of eleven horses arrived last night from Kentucky. The list includes Acolin, Anne Rivers, Azo, Agare, Icarian, Pavan, Agos, Rita, Kline, Sea Coast and Fez.

William Walker is the new owner of Milpitas, which horse was sold yesterday. Word has been received that Ab Stember, an old-time California trainer, is dead. He had been ailing some time and had been unable to follow his profession for several years. In the late eighties Stember trained for the late L. U. Shippee of Stockton, such horses as Take Notice, Ludovic and Picnic. When Burns & Waterhouse embarked in racing, Mr. Stember was selected as trainer. He handled Lovat, Gladiator and Malard. Later he trained for Joe Terry of Sacramento, and handled the good mare Fleur de Lis when she beat Satsuna and What-er-lou in the Burns Handicap. Among others the dead trainer handled such well-known performers as Arbaces, Lumina, Divina, Lodestar, Eonic and Bueno. Mr. Stember was a faithful and conscientious trainer and his death will undoubtedly be read with regret by horsemen all over the country.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey W. Dunn will ride for J. W. Schorr at Jacksonville.

It has been discovered that Touch Me was racing with a blind quarter crack which may explain his failure to run to expectations during part of the eastern season.

David Dunlop will winter Touch Me, Takahira, Bendaga and Touchwood at his farm in Chesterfield County, Virginia, where the veteran Virginia trainer, Gus Engelking, will have the care of them. Theodore Coles, who will spend the months of December, January and February at Woods Garth's farm in Albemarle County, will look them over early in March and take up the ones he likes best for 1911 racing.

Robert W. Walden, who has succeeded his father, the late R. Wyndham Walden, as master of the Bowing Brook Stud near Middleburg, Md., is planning to revive the fame of that successful thoroughbred nursery. Chilton, Jubilee and Bryn Mawr are the stallions that will be used. The mares of the stud include Belle de Jessamine, Aunt Belle, Conectrix, Lady Fitz Herbert, Belle Acon, Hanover Queen, Prestidigitatrice, Tabouret and Rosebay.
